

Small text at the top left of the page, possibly a header or page number.

Below the row of thumbnails, there is a vertical column of content. It starts with a red circular icon, followed by several small images and text blocks. At the bottom of this column is a small portrait of a person.